German Journals from Hegel and the Hegel school in 19th' Century Germany

(in German. Scanned by Google Books as PDF, searched, found and collected by Hegel.net)

- Jahrbücher für wissenschaftliche Kritik < <https://hegel.net/jwk/> > - The famous Journal, edited by Gans, in which Hegel and many of his pupils and friends published. Degenerated under massive pressure from the censor in the early 1840s, after Gans died and the new King issued an aggressive anti Hegelian Policy.
- Hallische Jahrbücher < <https://hegel.net/hallischejahrbuecher/> > - Famous left Hegelian Philosophical Journal from Echtermeyer and Ruge, published outside the direct reach of the Prussian censorship. Became the leading Hegelian Journal after the censorship of the JWK. Moved and renamed since July 1st 1841 as 'Deutsche Jahrbücher' and still forced to shut down end of January 1843. Reappeared once as 'Deutsch-Französische Jahrbücher'.
- Der Gedanke < <https://hegel.net/gedanke/> > - Philosophical Journal of Michelet and Cieszkowski and their Philosophical Society. An unsuccessful attempt to create a Hegelian revival in 1860's Berlin
